AviationManuals Closes Record Quarter with Highest Revenues and Inquiries in Company History

Washington, D.C., May 7, 2018 – AviationManuals, the world's leading provider of aircraft manual development services and flight operations Safety Management System (SMS) software for business aviation, closed 1Q2018 with a 104% Y-o-Y revenue growth, and 150% increase in new inquiries for its popular manual and software subscription services. As of March 31, 2018, AviationManuals' subscribers to its SMS software, ARC, increased 10-fold over last year.

"Our record 1Q2018 growth is a testament to how easy we make adopting and implementing effective documentation and SMS programs, even for smaller flight departments with small teams and limited resources," said AviationManuals CEO Mark Baier. "All of our products and services experienced positive growth, but our business saw a particular spike in subscriptions to International Operations related services and our ARC SMS Software."

AviationManuals will be exhibiting at EBACE 2018, in Geneva May 29-31 at booth J35e.

Aviation Operations Resources
AviationManuals delivers International Operations Manuals and custom Flight/General Operations Manuals for numerous registries. The company has over 750 subscribers to its International Operations Update Service and its Flight Operations Reissue Service.

In addition, ARC, its' SMS software, continues to add new users every week due to it being the only highly configurable and modular Safety Management System software available, allowing operators to choose only what they need. AviationManuals current focus is on Mobile Safety Management Systems through easy-to-use modules and apps.
