AviationManuals Posts Revenue Jump, Adds iPad App

The Weekly Of Business Aviation May 14, 2018 , p. 10

Molly McMillin

AviationManuals in Washington D.C. posted a 104% revenue increase in the first quarter compared to a year ago. Subscriptions to its SMS software increased tenfold, the developer of aircraft manuals and flight operations Safety Management System software for business aviation said. The company also has launched an iPad app for its ARC SMS online platform designed to improve mobility and offline access.
